

By placing my name on the Sign In Sheet as a volunteer, I agree to the following rules-

All personnel must sign in and OUT - every time they pass the gate!

All volunteers when accepting a task must work in groups of 2 persons or more. No one is to go or do anything alone, except when working at the Command Post or Base Camp.

All personnel must be properly dressed and equipped for any assignment they accept. The onus is upon each individual to comply.

No one shall accept an assignment for which they are not capable of performing.

It is the responsibility of any person to decline any assignment or part of an assignment for which they do not understand or feel uncomfortable of doing.

It is clearly understood that there will be no compensation for any lost or damaged articles or equipment used in a search.

All laws and regulations must be complied with by all persons involved in the search.

Volunteers are asked NOT to talk to the media - point them to the Media Contact Person or Incident Commander/Search Manager

Volunteers are asked not to engage in "black humour"
